

November 5, 2012

7:15pm - Direct From JCP&L: 452 houses will get power tomorrow, 25 the next day, 19 on the following and then 10 followed by 7. This should cover over 95% of the township. Please make certain you have reported your specific house to JCP&L so you do not get passed over!

Nick Pachnos OEM 908-256-6355.

12:00pm - Frelinghuysen Township will celebrate Halloween on Saturday, November 10th with a costume parade on Main Street from 12:00 - 1:00 p.m. Hot dogs and refreshments will be available at Town Hall. Township-wide trick-or-treating will take place from 1:00 - 5:00 p.m.

Still have questions? Contact Nick Pachnos at 908-256-6355.

7:00am - Just a reminder, a Proclamation of Local Disaster / Emergency with the Warren County Office of Emergency Management is still in effect for Frelinghuysen Township. Please call Nick Pachnos @ 908-256-6355 if you have any questions or have an immediate need for assistance.

Please use caution when traveling township roads. They have been cleared for access, but power lines are still down in many sections of township.

More residents are getting their power service restored, but it has been a slow process. The latest from JCP&L continues to be; between now and Wednesday most residents will have power service restored, but there may also be some remote sections of the town that will take longer.

Water and ice continues to be available for residents at Town Hall and can be picked up from 9am-4pm today. We will assess later today if we need to extend these hours.

We are monitoring the weather reports for predictions of yet another storm to hit our area. We ask that you continue to stay up to date of weather forecasts using any resource you have available to you.

Nick Pachnos
Emergency Management Coordinator

Township of Frelinghuysen OEM